Art Unit: 1623

Claims 1-6, 13 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Macy et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,239,112) or Dawson et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,239,113) for the reasons set forth in the Office Action of November 22, 2005.

Applicant's arguments filed February 22, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant contends that neither Macy nor Dawson discloses an "intimate admixture" of azithromycin and stabilizing effective amount of an antioxidant. This argument has not been found persuasive. Note that the claimed compositions encompass aqueous compositions. In water, a mixture of azithromycin and an antioxidant prepared by simply mixing the two components or by coprecipitation or co-milling would not be significantly different. The stability data set forth in the specification is directed to solid compositions. Further, note that Macy et al disclose in column 9, lines 5011 a stable composition comprising 12.5% w/v of azithromycin and 0.5% w/v of an antioxidant, which is within the scope of the claimed invention.

Claims 1-6, 8-20 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Macy et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,239,112) or Dawson et al (U.S. Patent No. 6,239,113) in view of Curatolo et al (U.S. Patent No. 5,605,889) for the reasons set forth in the Office Action of November 22, 2005.

Applicant's arguments filed February 22, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has not presented any evidence that an intimate admixture of azithromycin and an antioxidant in an aqueous solution is more stable than a mixture of azithromycin and an antioxidant in an aqueous solution. Therefore, the claimed compositions and method are still seen to be prima facie obvious over the cited prior art.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Elli Peselev whose telephone number is (571) 272-0659. The examiner can normally be reached on 8.00-4.30.
